

Hello <Customer's Name>,

Thank you for contacting Microsoft Support. My name is Rajdeep. I am the Support Professional from Browsers team, who will be working with you on this Service Request. My work timings are 9:00 AM PST to 6:00 PM PST, Monday to Friday. You may reach me using the contact information listed below, referencing the SR number <Case_Number>.

I went through the verbatim you have shared on the case. As per the verbatim, I believe you are experiencing <one sentence summary of the issue>. Based on the initial analysis, I would request you to help us with the following information, to understand the issue in depth:

1. Question 1
2. Question 2
3. Question 3
4. Question 4 and so on

In addition to it, I would also like you to test a few action items and let us know if they help us with resolving the issue. Following would be the list of those action items:

1. Action item with explanation
2. Action item with explanation
3. Action item with explanation
4. Action items with explanation and so on

If none of the action items specified above result in resolution or you would like our assistance in carrying out the action plan, I would like to know your availability to connect and discuss the case. I look forward to hearing from you.
