

Hello <Customer's Name>,

Thank you for your email.

My calendar looks pretty open between <time> and <time> and then from <time> to <time> today. However, for tomorrow and the rest of the week, I could make myself available between <time> and <time>.

Please let me know what the suitable time would be to connect with you. I will send out a meeting invite to block our calendars. I look forward to your response.
